

Empowering the Innocent (ETI)

Innocence Art Conference

6 April 2024

University of Bristol Law School

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

10.00 am Registration.

10.30 am Welcome and launch of conference. Dr Michael Naughton, Founder and Director, Empowering the Innocent (ETI).

10.45 am – 12 pm Film: “We Believe You”. Followed by discussion with the Director, Patrick Graham.

12. pm – 1 pm Art exhibition featuring paintings and drawings inspired by false allegations and wrongful convictions with narrations from the artists.

1 pm – 2 pm Lunch Break

2 pm – 3 pm Jane Metcalfe gives an update on the boost to Robin Garbutt’s claim of innocence provided by the ITV series on Mr Bates and the Post Office.

3 pm – 3.30 pm Break

3.30 pm – 4.30 pm Dr Kevin Felstead talks about his work with British False Memory Society (BFMS) and new book on the subject of false memories as a cause of false allegations and wrongful convictions.

4.30 pm – 4.45 pm Poetry readings relating to false allegations and wrongful convictions.

4.45 pm Concluding remarks.

5.00 pm Conference ends.